

Call for Legal Aid Service

The Ministry for Home Affairs, National Security and Law Enforcement is currently seeking the legal service of warranted lawyers for appeal cases submitted by third country nationals before the International Protection Appeals Tribunal and Immigration Appeals Board.

The selected lawyers will be required to carry out the following tasks:

- Meet appellants in preparation for case submission;
- Lodge case submissions to the International Protection Appeals Tribunal and Immigration Appeals Board;
- Attend Board hearings;
- Follow-up submissions as necessary.

Selected lawyers will be paid at the rates indicated in the Terms of Reference.

To express your interest please send your CV and copy of legal warrant to legalaid.mhse@gov.mt by no later than 28 May 2021.

For more information, please request the full terms of reference through legalaid.mhse@gov.mt or call on 9913 1777 or download the document from this link <https://homeaffairs.gov.mt/legalaid/>
